

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO

FACOLTÀ DI SCIENZE POLITICHE,
ECONOMICHE E SOCIALI

I·PLE is an interdisciplinary Bachelor's degree programme in International Politics entirely taught in English. It provides up-to-date knowledge, especially in the fields of political science, law and economics. Students will opt for either I·PE, the "International Politics and Economics" curriculum, or I·PL, the "International Politics and Law" one.

In the former case, they will acquire a wide array of skills and tools for the comparative analysis of politics and economic policies; in the latter, they will delve into international relations issues, including international and European law, and the political history of specific regions of the world. This Bachelor's programme further offers opportunities to attend a wide range of practical workshops and/or undertake short or long internship experiences.

I·PLE offers several short training courses aimed at strengthening students' logical skills and critical capacities, as well as offering the tools necessary for data analysis. The goal is to guide students in combining the knowledge acquired through traditional courses with the development of specific skills through a teaching methodology based on a "learning by doing" approach.

Furthermore, I·PLE provides several opportunities for internship in companies, institutions or organisations, as well as exchange experiences in foreign universities, thanks to a solid and stable network of partner universities in Europe and around the world. The aim is to create double degree programmes as soon as possible.

Admission:

The call for admission provides for two different entry sessions.

- The Spring session is reserved to EU students in their last year of secondary school (65 places), and to non-EU candidates (25 places). EU candidates will sit an online exam (English TOLC-E, organized by CISIA) testing for reading comprehension, logic and mathematics. Non-EU candidates will be selected on the basis of their curriculum vitae, diploma, high-school transcript and language certificates.
- The September session, for the remaining 60 places reserved to EU candidates, will adopt the English TOLC-E test, and its exact organization will depend on the evolution of the current health emergency.

Curricula:

I·PE INTERNATIONAL POLITICS and ECONOMICS

I·PL INTERNATIONAL POLITICS and LAW

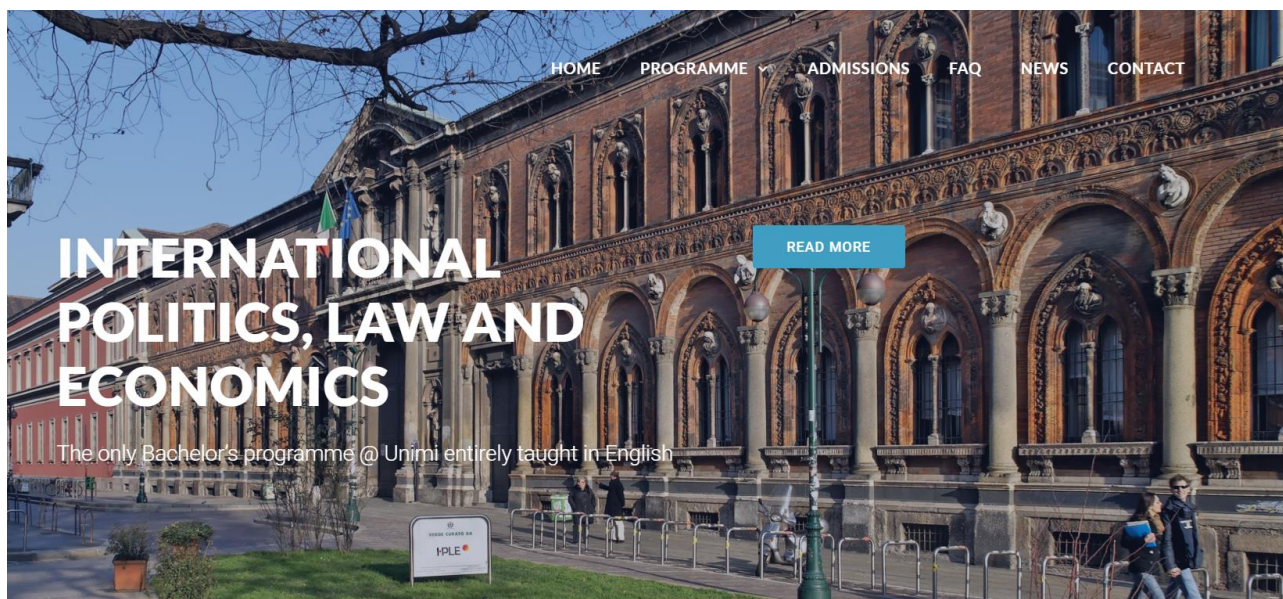

Contacts:

iple@unimi.it

iple.cdl.unimi.it

Common courses (credits)

Logic and critical thinking (3)	Microeconomics (9)
Data analysis (3)	Statistics (6)
Writing and communication skills (9)	International law (9)
Contemporary history (6)	International relations (9)
History of political theories (6)	International macroeconomics (12)
Public law (9)	Second Language (Ita/Fre/Ger/Spa 3)
Comparative social systems (6)	Lab / Internship (3)
Political science (9)	Elective courses (12)

Curricula (credits)

INTERNATIONAL POLITICS and ECONOMICS

Mathematics (6)
 Research methodology (6)
 Econometrics (6)
 Polimetrics (6)
 Advanced data analysis (3)
 Comparative political systems (9)
 Public economics (9)
 Models in political analysis (9)
 International economics and policy (6)

INTERNATIONAL POLITICS and LAW

History of international relations (9)
 Sociology of globalization (6)
 EU law (9)
 War studies (6)
 Comparative public law (6)
 International human rights law / International trade law (9)
 International politics of East Asia / State and society in the Mediterranean and Middle East (9)
 History and politics of the global powers (6)

Final essay (6)